

Rogers Foods

<https://rogersfoods.com/job/industrial-maintenance-millwright>

Industrial Maintenance Millwright

Description

LEVEL: HOURLY

SUPERVISOR: MAINTENANCE MANAGER

RANGE: $42.83- $45.83

General Purpose:

The Industrial Maintenance Millwright will assist in the overall maintenance of all plant equipment, processes, facilities and grounds. The Millwright will be responsible for repairing large mill machinery, machine & corrugating mill's, conducting periodic Preventative maintenance, condition-based maintenance, calibrations events and maintaining the plant following the maintenance program and policies.

Qualifications

- Experience working in a combustible dust environment considered an asset
- Capable of inspecting and diagnosing process problems across various processes
- Required to troubleshoot mechanical, rotating, conveyor, pneumatic equipment and implement corrective action in adherence to all policy and procedure limitations
- Strong technical knowledge of mechanical, pneumatic, rotating equipment and systems
- Proficient in utilizing a Computerized Maintenance Management System (CMMS)
- Can interpret, read and modify blueprints and drawings
- Must be a team player, adaptable, and eager to take on new or additional duties as needed.
- Highly organized with strong planning and problem-solving abilities
- Available for shiftwork including afterhours, weekends, holidays and call outs as required

Responsibilities

- Work with other departments to provide excellent customer service in repairing and maintaining production equipment to ensure minimal downtime and expanded operational life span to prevent operational disruptions
- Complete assigned work orders issued by the maintenance manager and plant personnel
- Independently respond to unscheduled breakdowns and make necessary repairs to keep production running
- Installation of equipment and rigging practices: position, assemble, align and commission existing and new equipment and process as required on all mill machinery and use correct rigging and mechanical principles
- Execute preventative maintenance events as directed in the established

Hiring organization

Rogers Foods Ltd.

Employment Type

Full-time

Industry

Manufacturing

Job Location

44360 Simpson Road, V2R 4B7,
Chilliwack, British Columbia,
Canada

Working Hours

40 hours per week

Base Salary

$ 42.83 - $ 45.83

Date posted

July 27, 2026

maintenance program; utilize the CMMS (D365) system to its functions of completing work orders, spare part ordering and asset program

- Make recommendations for major overhauls, improvements, and replacement of equipment
- Assessable and rebuilding of roll stands, overhauling existing roll stands and completing roll replacements as per production plan; complete rebuilding of other equipment such as gearboxes and process equipment within the workshop requirements
- Operate and run corrugation machine for resurfacing roll stands as directed
- Weld and fabrication on parts, components and equipment in the field where applicable
- Install and commission new equipment and processes; complete required documentation for food safety requirements
- Train and mentor personal where needed; apprentices, production and operational staff
- Operate forklift truck and other company equipment; use company truck to pick up parts etc.
- Understand critical control points (CCP) and Quality Assurance requirements for food safe standards
- Follow Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP's) while performing job duties and tasks
- Responsible for compliance with Canada Labour Occupational Health and Safety requirements and company safety standards

Experience

- Interprovincial/Red Seal: Industrial Millwright (Journeyman) Certification
- Minimum 5 years' experience
- Understanding of GMP food Safety