

Rogers Foods

<https://rogersfoods.com/job/production-flour-packer>

Production Flour Packer

Description

The flour packer is responsible for the effective and efficient packaging of milled product, including the set-up, changeover, and minor maintenance of the flour packing equipment.

Qualifications

- Grade 12 or equivalent.
- Self-motivated team player with a strong work ethic able to work independently as well as with cross departmental team members.
- Forklift experience an asset.
- Strong Computer skills.
- Ability to lift up to 25 kg on a repetitive basis, and work in hot and or dusty environments.
- Available for shift work as well as work on weekends, holidays, and call outs as required.

Responsibilities

- Operates and maintains efficient performance on flour packaging line while meeting quota.
- Ensures that flour transfer is made from correct flour bin.
- Ensures that only good quality packed product enters warehouse.
- Ensures all bags are folded, sealed, and wrapped correctly before leaving packaging area.
- Completion of ongoing checks of code dates and correction of any problems to ensure that each packed bag leaving the packaging area is readable and dated correctly.
- Ensures bags are dated correctly before entering warehouse.
- Ensures changeovers and adjustments are made to accommodate different bag sizes.
- Ensures all packed products are stacked on skids in a correct way according to pattern.
- Ensures all skids with packed product are numbered to provide an easy identification in case of call back.
- Performs quality assurance checks as per outlined procedure.
- Fills out production reports.
- Maintains good sanitary condition in working area and packaging equipment while packaging is in process, as well all re-run/feed bags being emptied at warehouse dumping station.
- Leaves packaging area and equipment at end of shift in a clean sanitary condition, with all re-run/feed bags being emptied at warehouse dumping station.
- Maintains all production machinery in good operating condition, in co-operation with Maintenance Department. Advises supervisor of problems.
- Corrects and cleans up any spills of product in the product transfer system being used (plug-ups, broken lines, etc.).
- Reports sanitation issues to supervisor.
- Is aware of critical control points as they relate to product liability.
- Responsible for compliance with Canada Labour Occupational Health and Safety requirements and company safety standards.

Hiring organization

Rogers Foods Ltd.

Employment Type

Full-time

Industry

Manufacturing

Job Location

4420 Larkin Cross Road, V0E1B6,
Armstrong, BC, Canada

Working Hours

40 Hours per week

Base Salary

$ 23.53 - $ 27.15

Date posted

January 21, 2025

- Follow Good Manufacturing (GMP's) while performing job duties and tasks.
- Performs all other related duties, including training, as required.